Inspired
by you.

JANUARY 1, 2024 TO DECEMBER 31, 2024

CELEBRATING YOU

as our Loyal Donors

As you take a moment to read through our annual report to you, our treasured supporter, you will see stories of generous donors from across the region. We hope you will see some of yourself in their motivations, their ways of giving or their goals to help others.

We confidently plan for the coming year buoyed by your proven dedication, your willing spirit and generous heart. All at McLeod Health are inspired by your unwavering passion and support and are grateful that you are a part of our McLeod family.

Together, our future is bright.

It all begins with you.

Each year as our McLeod Health Foundation team prepares ideas for this publication, we consider the many ways donors like you have generously responded to meeting the needs of our patients and their families.

You are truly the inspiration for our work. Through your gifts you guide the support we can provide to the McLeod Children's Hospital, our McLeod Hospice program, helping cancer patients through the HOPE (Helping Oncology Patients Everyday) Fund and so many regional services such as the new McLeod Center for Cancer Treatment and Research on the campus of McLeod Health Seacoast.

We understand your giving is personal and often directed by your family's experiences and care. We are humbled by the trust you place in us to wisely use your donations to best achieve your philanthropic goals.

ON THE COVER

Dr. Joshua Rouhan and his wife, Haley, feel richly blessed to call Florence their home and to be part of the McLeod Health family. Guided by their faith and gratitude, they believe it is their responsibility to give back to their new community. The Rouhans are pictured on the cover with their children Audrey, Amelia, Brayden and Brendan. Their story of giving to support the programs and services of the McLeod Health Foundation is featured on page 6.

Frankie Blanton: A Legacy of Leadership and Generosity

How Deep Roots and Personal Experience Motivated a Lifetime of Giving

Frankie Blanton's name is synonymous with commitment to community.

Widely regarded as a legend in Loris and across Horry County, Frankie's influence has shaped the past, present, and future of the region. Whether through his leadership roles or philanthropic spirit, his contributions have touched countless lives.

Raised in Loris and now residing in Green Sea, Frankie has deep roots in the community. He and his wife, Nancy, shared a 57-year marriage that began with a blind date and blossomed into a lifetime of love and service. They lived in Frankie's family home, a cherished part of his heritage, where they raised four children and enjoyed their growing family of eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Decades of dedication have marked Frankie's personal and professional life. He has served on several boards, including 17 years with the Loris Hospital Board.

Frankie has always had a vision for accessible, high-quality care for the local community. This drove his powerful advocacy for Loris Hospital and its eventual merger with McLeod Health.

Frankie Blanton honors his wife Nancy's legacy through his support of the new McLeod Cancer Center.

Frankie's support for local healthcare is also deeply personal. After Nancy's 2020 cancer diagnosis, the couple experienced the compassionate care of the McLeod Center for Cancer Treatment and Research and McLeod Hospice.

"During Nancy's illness, the support from McLeod Health was the best," Frankie recalled. "The people caring for her were wonderful."

Nancy passed away in 2021, and Frankie honors her legacy through continued philanthropy. The Blanton family and the family business, Blanton Supplies, recently made significant contributions to support the new McLeod Cancer Center on the campus of McLeod Health Seacoast.

Frankie's motivation is to ensure others can receive lifesaving care close to home.

"Cancer is so prevalent, and many people do not have the resources to travel," Frankie explained. "Fortunately, we are financially able to help people, thank the Lord."

Frankie's enduring commitment to Horry County exemplifies the spirit of generosity. His passion for his community sustains McLeod Health's goal to provide exceptional care for all.

A Promise of HOPE for Generations to Come

How a Caring Cancer Survivor Gives Back

For Gray Covington of McColl, HOPE now has a new meaning.

In March of 2023, Gray was enjoying a full and blessed life. She was planning her daughter's wedding and preparing to become a "Gabby" to her first grandchild, a baby girl.

This was also the time of year Gray scheduled her yearly mammogram. Soon after the routine screening, she received a call.

While this was not the first time Gray had been called back for further testing, for some reason, this time felt different—she knew something was wrong.

Gray's intuition was correct. She was diagnosed with Stage 1 Triple Positive breast cancer.

The year to come would include surgery, chemotherapy, radiation, and numerous hours spent at the McLeod Center for Cancer Treatment and Research. On her first day, she met Sarah Beth Averette, the HOPE (Helping Oncology Patients Everyday) Fund Coordinator. Sarah Beth presented Gray with a new patient bag. Tucked inside was a pamphlet about the HOPE Fund, which assists patients facing financial challenges while undergoing cancer treatments.

Each time Gray sat in the Cancer Center waiting area, she would observe those around her. She realized that some patients lacked a support system, insurance coverage, and the financial means to get through a life-altering diagnosis.

"I was reassured knowing the HOPE Fund was there for those who cannot afford to pay for everything that comes along with cancer," Gray explained.

Gray often watched patients go into Sarah Beth's office, seeking help. They would walk in nervously, their faces stricken with fear. Moments later, they would walk out relieved and at ease.

As Gray successfully progressed through her treatments, she was continuously reminded of the importance of the HOPE Fund. It soon became an important focus of her philanthropy. She has also joined the HOPE Fund Advisory Committee, lending her heart, compassion, and experience to help determine how best to use the fund's resources to assist patients.

Recently, Gray and her husband, Rhett, donated a gift of stock to support the HOPE Fund Endowment in honor of her late grandmother, a fellow breast cancer survivor.

"This endowment will ensure help is available from the HOPE Fund regardless of fluctuations in annual donations," Gray shared. "I only see the need growing, and we want to make this assistance possible for generations to come."

Gift of Appreciated Securities: A Tax-Savvy Way to Benefit from Growing Assets

Securities and mutual funds are popular assets to use when making a gift to the McLeod Health Foundation. When you donate appreciated securities or mutual funds in support of our mission, you can reduce or even eliminate federal capital gains taxes on the transfer. You may also be entitled to a federal income tax charitable deduction based on the fair market value of the securities at the time of the transfer.

Faith Guides Family's Generosity

Dedicated Physician and His Family Find Their New Home at McLeod

Dr. Joshua Rouhan and his wife, Haley, feel richly blessed to call Florence their home and to be part of the McLeod Health family. Guided by their faith and gratitude, they believe it is their responsibility to give back to their new community.

After completing his Emergency Medicine Residency, Dr. Rouhan initially signed with another organization in the state. But he and Haley decided to visit Florence and tour McLeod Regional Medical Center anyway. The two quickly realized that this should be the place where their family, including their four young children, plant their roots.

“Josh and I both had a ‘feeling’ when we visited,” Haley reflects. “Florence just felt like home for us.”

When new physicians join the McLeod medical staff, they spend time with several key departments, including the McLeod Health Foundation. Foundation staff explain the many programs and services that generous Foundation donors provide for our patients.

As soon as Dr. Rouhan heard about the critical funding needs, he did not hesitate. “I immediately said ‘Sign us up! I want to help,’” Dr. Rouhan recalls.

Dr. Joshua Rouhan and his wife Haley have found their home at McLeod. They are pictured with their children Audrey, Brayden, Amelia and Brendan.

After beginning his role in the Emergency Department, Dr. Rouhan and his wife joined the McLeod Foundation's Circle of Excellence Young Giving Society and began contributing personally to both the HOPE (Helping Oncology Patients Everyday) and HERO (Helping Eliminate and Remove Obstacles for Pediatric Patients) Funds.

“Since God has given us so much, we must live our lives with open hands, to help other people who need to be helped,” Haley shares.

Additionally, Dr. Rouhan recently began serving as a Trustee on the McLeod Health Foundation Board, lending his heart, mind and unique perspective to advance the work and impact of the McLeod Foundation.

“As a physician, you have much responsibility with what you have been given,” Dr. Rouhan explains. “For us, there is no reason that we should not be giving back to support the Foundation. I try to make a difference every day using my mind and my hands...why not use our own personal finances to make a difference, too?”

“Everyone here has become like family to us,” Haley adds. “McLeod is truly our home now.”

A Testament to a Son's Loving Care

How a History of Choosing McLeod Health Guided a Legacy Commitment

For Lake City natives Sean Carter and his late mother, Gwen Carter, McLeod Health has always been the choice for excellent and compassionate healthcare.

In 2005, Gwen relocated from Lake City to Charleston to be close to Sean. After the move, she was diagnosed with Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD), which worsened over the next several years. In 2014, Gwen learned it had reached the terminal stage.

Immediately, Sean made the decision to sell his home and move him and Gwen back to the Pee Dee -- this time to Florence.

“I purchased my home for its proximity to McLeod Regional Medical Center,” Sean recalls. “It was important that we be near a trusted source of skilled professionals who could care for my mom as she aged and her disease advanced.”

After ten years away, Gwen re-established her relationship with McLeod and the providers she had seen for decades. Sean never missed an appointment with her.

In March of 2022, Gwen fractured her hip. Coupled with her existing COPD, her care team thought it best to call in McLeod Hospice. Gwen had been a hospice patient twice before, but each time, she turned a corner and “graduated” from the program.

Grateful for the care his mother received from McLeod Health, Sean Carter chose to name the McLeod Foundation as the sole beneficiary of his estate.

This time, sadly, she would not recover. On July 25, 2022, Gwen passed away peacefully at home with Sean by her side.

Soon after his mother's death, Sean chose to name the McLeod Health Foundation as the sole beneficiary of his estate, as well as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy. Full of gratitude for the care his mother received, Sean designated his contribution to the McLeod Heart and Vascular Institute.

In 2023, Sean was inducted into the prestigious Dr. F. H. McLeod Legacy Society, honoring his legacy commitment. He also graduated from the McLeod Fellows Program expanding his knowledge of the healthcare system.

“Naming the McLeod Health Foundation the beneficiary of my estate serves as a testament to its accomplishments on behalf of McLeod Health,” Sean explained. “And, hopefully, it will provide resources for its continuing growth and expansion.”

Crystal Strickland serves as a Prenatal Case Manager working with expecting mothers at high risk for complications. Thanks to grant funding from The Duke Endowment, Crystal has touched the lives of more than 2,200 new moms.

A Century of Commitment to Your Health

A Partnership Now Dedicated to Maternal and Infant Healthcare

A Shared History

You may already be familiar with the history of McLeod Health. Dr. F. H. McLeod, despairing over the death of a child he knew could have been saved if Florence had a hospital, opened the McLeod Infirmary in 1906. Over the next 119 years, McLeod Health has grown into the eight-hospital regional system you know today.

What you may not know is that The Duke Endowment supported Dr. McLeod in the establishment of a new hospital in the 1930s.

Since its founding in 1924 by tobacco magnate James B. Duke, The Duke Endowment has gifted $1.6 billion to support healthcare in the Carolinas.

In the indenture that established the Endowment, Mr. Duke explained that hospitals “have become indispensable institutions, not only by way of ministering to the comfort of the sick but in increasing the efficiency of mankind and prolonging human life.”

Not long after The Duke Endowment’s founding, Dr. McLeod reached out for help. He had a grand vision to expand and modernize his small infirmary, and to ensure it would remain operational in perpetuity. For this, he needed financial assistance.

In 1930, The Duke Endowment committed $125,000 to McLeod, more than $2.2 million in today’s dollars. Dr. McLeod happily matched the grant from his own assets. A few years later, the McLeod Infirmary constructed a much larger, more modern facility. One medical journal at the time called it “one of the finest and best equipped hospitals in the South Atlantic States.”

A Steadfast Commitment

Since that first gift, The Duke Endowment has remained a supporter of the McLeod Health Foundation.

Over the last 20 years, the Endowment has granted $19 million to the McLeod Foundation, supporting initiatives ranging from the Mobile Mammography Unit and Community Paramedicine to a Comprehensive Lung Cancer program. Countless patients across the region have benefited from the generous relationship.

“We view McLeod Health as a critical partner in our work,” explains Lin Hollowell, Director of The Duke Endowment’s Health Care division.

“We partner with McLeod on projects that not only expand access to care and reduce health disparities in the Pee Dee, but that do so in an innovative way. McLeod is helping to accelerate the entire field of healthcare.”

The Partnership Today Helps Our Most Vulnerable Patients

One of The Duke Endowment’s current funding priorities is maternal and infant healthcare.

“We see huge disparities in maternal and infant care,” Lin says. “A child’s early years are so critical -- when a child has a healthy start to life, the long-term benefits are massive.”

In 2022, The Duke Endowment granted the McLeod Foundation $676,000 to hire Prenatal Case Managers at the rural delivering hospitals of McLeod Health. These Case Managers work with expecting mothers at high-risk for complications, and ensure they receive the care and education they need to have healthy pregnancies.

The first of these Case Managers hired was Crystal Strickland. Crystal has already served more than 2,200 women at McLeod Health Lorris and McLeod Health Seacoast.

“My job is to empower patients to care for themselves,” Crystal explains. “I was once a young mother who didn’t have a clue. A kind nurse taught me to breastfeed and held my hand through a lot of challenges. Now, I am doing something similar for a diverse group of women. It means the world to me.”

Crystal shared the story of an expecting mother who recently benefitted from this initiative. The patient suffered severe trauma in her life and had battled depression, anxiety, and substance use disorder.

But thanks to the compassion and commitment she received from this program, the patient knew she was on the right path to having a healthy birth.

“She explained that if she did not have access to this program, she didn’t know what she would have done,” Crystal said. “The patient was grateful that we connected her to therapy, a mom’s program, and provided the medications she needed. She added that God put her in my life because He knew she needed this support.”

Patients and families across the region are grateful for the excellent care accessible to them because of the legacies of Dr. F. H. McLeod and James B. Duke.

Successful Life Journey Benefits Others

How a Battle with Cancer and a Commitment to Healthcare Motivated a Major Gift

A Prediction Comes True

In 2017, Peggy Skudera wondered what lay ahead. After 30 years working in healthcare, she had been laid off. Bravely, she sold her home in Jersey Shore and moved south to Little River, South Carolina.

Peggy drove by McLeod Health Seacoast regularly and every time, the thought entered her mind ‘I will work there someday. I will be the Volunteer Manager.’

The following year, Peggy was hired at McLeod Health Seacoast. A few years later, true to her predictions, she became the Volunteer Manager. Peggy worked diligently and rapidly increased the number of volunteers at McLeod Health Seacoast from 41 to 275, greatly benefiting patients and families.

A Frightening Diagnosis

Seven years after relocating, at the age of 70, Peggy’s wonderful success was tested when she received a breast cancer diagnosis. After pulling herself out of a “deep black hole,” she began her fight. She underwent a lumpectomy, six weeks of radiation, and started a hormone blocker.

“I beat cancer by surrounding myself with the most positive people and because of the amazing physicians and staff who took care of me.”

-Peggy Skudera

Peggy only missed one day of work, the day she had her surgery.

“I beat cancer by surrounding myself with the most positive people and because of the amazing physicians and staff who took care of me.”

Surviving With An Even Stronger Commitment To Health

Peggy’s cancer journey taught her some tough lessons about the state of cancer care in the region. With radiation only available in Myrtle Beach or Florence, Peggy had to drive long distances every day for treatment. She also noticed how others with cancer, including some of her own volunteers, faced even more difficult journeys.

These lessons motivated Peggy to make a generous commitment to the Hope and Healing Campaign supporting the McLeod Center for Cancer Treatment and Research on the campus of McLeod Health Seacoast.

“I am invested in the new Cancer Center because of my story,” Peggy explains. “I want people to understand the importance of staying healthy and living longer.”

Profound Personal Experiences Guide Philanthropy

For Chip Munn, precious memories of the births of his three sons are tied to gratitude. All three were at risk of being born prematurely but fortunately they each arrived healthy.

As a parent of pre-term babies, Chip joined a young parents support group at McLeod Regional Medical Center. He became determined to ease the burdens of some of the families he met there and soon discovered he could do this by supporting the McLeod Health Foundation.

Chip’s involvement with the Foundation continued to grow. He became a loyal donor and eventually joined the McLeod Foundation’s Board of Trustees, serving three terms.

“My service on the board gave me real insight concerning the vision of McLeod Health and the many programs in need of charitable funding,” Chip reflects.

Armed with a deeper knowledge of the impact philanthropy can have on healthcare, Chip sought to increase his giving power. For this, he turned to his firm, Signature Wealth Strategies.

Chip’s business partner, Scott Mitchell, has also been personally involved with the Foundation, and McLeod has touched the lives of all the firm’s employees. Therefore, it was only natural for Signature Wealth to become the first presenting sponsor for the McLeod Hospice “A Light for Someone You Love” Tree Lighting. They have continued their generous support for three years.

Chip Munn and his business partner Scott Mitchell have woven philanthropy into the fabric of Signature Wealth Strategies for both their clients and staff.

Again, Chip’s personal experience informs his giving. Four of his family members experienced the compassionate care provided at the McLeod Hospice House.

“It was a tremendous blessing to have our loved ones cared for at the Hospice House to ensure their last days were spent peacefully,” Chip recalls.

Philanthropy is now woven into the fabric of Signature Wealth Strategies. Everyone at the firm works to help clients both grow investments and give to charities that are important to them. They believe there is no better way to do that than to practice what you preach.

“You typically intersect with the hospital at a time that is not ideal,” Chip explains. “So, when you find that the hospital is there to support you as a patient and a person, it makes you want to return the favor – not only for yourself, but to pave the way for others who will come after you.”

Collins & Almers Architecture: Designing a Lasting Relationship with McLeod Health

Professional Service and Personal Family Care Benefits the Region

Scott Collins and Kevin Almers are architects and lifelong Florentines. So, for their firm, Collins & Almers Architecture, McLeod has always been a part of their lives as their “hometown hospital.”

“I first began serving McLeod in 1985, when then President Bruce Barragan hired me to update the hospital’s interior signage,” Scott reflects. “Little did I know at the time, I was drawing up a blueprint for a 40-year association with McLeod.”

This long-term bond holds a deeply personal significance for the Collins and Almers families. In addition to the professional relationship, McLeod has also provided compassionate care to their families at critical times.

“McLeod has provided care to all our firm’s families over the years,” Kevin remarks. “When we were facing frightening times due to health issues, McLeod was there for us.”

This mutual trust and appreciation has guided the firm’s generous involvement with the McLeod Health Foundation. For 15 years, Collins & Almers has supported a variety of McLeod Foundation campaigns from An Evening of Hope Cancer Benefit and the Chef & Child Dinner and Auction to A Night in the Round and the McLeod Children’s Hospital Golf Classic.

“We appreciate the easy process of working with the McLeod Foundation staff to direct our sponsorship to the areas our team is most passionate about,” Kevin explains.

While philanthropy has become a major facet of the firm’s relationship with McLeod, Collins & Almers continues to serve the “hometown hospital” with its architectural expertise.

“Probably our most satisfying and personally meaningful McLeod project was designing the Children’s Hospital’s Playroom,” Scott shares. “The large shade tree and other fun features connected us with our inner child and produced a space pediatric patients can enjoy during challenging times.”

Everyone at Collins & Almers hopes to help McLeod continue growing and expanding its services so patients have access to the finest facilities and equipment.

“Working with McLeod has been an honor and a pleasure,” Scott says. “We plan to continue this relationship for many years, and we look forward to seeing McLeod fulfill its mission of healthcare excellence.”

Make Your Mark with the Corporate Vendor Sponsorship Program

The Corporate Vendor Sponsorship Program allows the Foundation to partner with business leaders who recognize the importance of a shared investment in advancing the health and wellbeing of the entire community. The Foundation works to continually attract key businesses and community leaders, volunteers, board and committee members, as well as donors to consider joining the program.

If you are interested in learning more about the Corporate Vendor Sponsorship Program or would like help customizing a plan tailored to your organization’s needs, please contact Davis Sawyer with the McLeod Foundation at 843-777-2138.

A Family History of Care and a Legacy of Support

The Yahnis Family's Gratitude for Exceptional Care Continues Through Generations

For brothers Byron and Jimmy Yahnis appreciation for the McLeod Heart and Vascular Institute began with the exceptional care their late father, Chris, received in the 1990s.

"Dad trusted McLeod, and he made sure we knew we should trust it, too," the brothers explained. "He also taught us the value of giving back as we witnessed his support for the McLeod Health Foundation."

Byron and Jimmy, co-owners of the Yahnis Company in Florence, had uneventful medical histories themselves.

However, in 2024, Jimmy began noticing that something was a little off.

After a few days of playing golf, he felt lightheaded. Weeks later, he began feeling dizzy and unusually fatigued.

Upon recommendations from friends in the medical field, Jimmy decided to see Dr. Brian Wall, an Interventional Cardiologist with McLeod Cardiology Associates. Though Jimmy lives in Murrells Inlet, he recalled his late father's advice and chose to drive to Florence for his consultation.

Early tests revealed nothing abnormal, but Dr. Wall was adamant something was wrong.

"Dr. Wall would not stop searching for the problem and would not release me until he figured out what was going on," Jimmy recalled.

After an exploratory heart catheterization, Dr. Wall gave Jimmy some sobering news -- he needed double bypass surgery.

"I made it my whole life with no big health issues," Jimmy remarked. "This news was a real shock to hear."

At 69, the same age his father had triple bypass surgery, Jimmy underwent his own double bypass surgery.

Dr. Cary Huber with McLeod Cardiothoracic Surgical Associates performed the surgery. Jimmy spent the following days recovering in the Cardiovascular Intensive Care Unit at McLeod Regional Medical Center.

"The entire experience was just seamless," Jimmy reflected. "I could not have gotten through it without the amazing care from the nurses and my wife, Patti, who was there for me every step."

Soon after the surgery, Jimmy and Byron decided they wanted to express their gratitude through a gift supporting McLeod Cardiac Services.

"We want to give back through our company to support excellent healthcare in our region," Jimmy explained. "Because of the care I received, I'm getting my life back. I get to watch my grandson grow up and have a little fun with the time I have left. I'm grateful."

Jimmy and Byron Yahnis are committed to giving back through their company to support excellent healthcare in the region.

McLeod Foundation Volunteers of the Year Announced

Each year, the McLeod Health Foundation honors special individuals whose consistent leadership has contributed significantly to the work of the organization. Volunteers are instrumental in helping the Foundation raise funds needed to support the programs and services of McLeod.

The McLeod Foundation recognized four very deserving individuals during the 2024 McLeod Founders' Society Garden Party held at the Cabin at Old Spur -- Marvin and Beth Ann Owen – Philanthropists of the Year Dr. Joshua Rouhan – Physician Champion of the Year Jennifer Yacoubian – Volunteer of the Year

The intent of the Philanthropist of the Year award is to recognize someone who donates substantial resources, often including time and expertise to a particular cause, area or social issue. In presenting the honor, Executive Director Elizabeth Jones said, "This year, it was very clear that one couple stood out through their joint dedication to our mission. With family ties to generations of babies delivered at McLeod, experiences with their own children and grandchildren and her work as a pediatric nurse, Marvin and Beth Ann Owen continue to provide inspiration to all of us through their example of giving generously of both their gifts and their service.

"Marvin has been a long-time sponsor of the McLeod Children's Hospital Golf Classic and also has given of his time to lead the committee. In addition, he provides specialized business leadership on the McLeod Foundation Board. Beth Ann's family experience with hospice care in the 1990s led to their early support for McLeod Hospice. Serving has always played a profound role in her life so when she learned of the establishment of the Butterfly Fund, she readily accepted the leadership role as the Chair.

"This past year, the couple and their family also represented all hospice families when they threw the switch to light the lights at the annual McLeod Hospice A Light for Someone You Love Tree Lighting Ceremony."

In honoring Dr. Joshua Rouhan as the Physician of the Year, Development Officer Lauren Snipes explained how upon learning about the work of the McLeod Foundation, Dr. Rouhan said, "Sign us up! How can we help.' He wanted to be a part of making a difference in the lives of his patients, beyond just treating their ailments in the emergency setting. True to his word, he did just that. Dr. Rouhan and his wife joined the Circle of Excellence Young Giving Society and began contributing personally to the HOPE Fund and the HERO Fund immediately.

"Shortly after he arrived at McLeod, I was contacted by a donor who was having trouble and ended up in the Emergency Department. I immediately picked up the phone and reached out to Dr. Rouhan, hoping he could give me guidance in this situation and maybe give me some words to share with this donor. Instead of just giving me tips, he handled the situation himself. Countless situations have happened since, all with this caring physician saying, 'Let me make a call,' or 'Let me go visit this patient,' giving the patients and their family members positive memories of an otherwise traumatic event. When I think of Physician Champion, Dr. Rouhan immediately comes to mind," added Snipes.

Davis Sawyer, Children's Hospital Fund Manager, presented the Volunteer of the Year award to Jennifer Yacoubian. "The McLeod Foundation has been blessed throughout our 40-year history with a long line of volunteers who have provided not only their gifts but also their time and talents.

"As the Foundation staff began looking at new ways to develop young leadership, one person quickly stood out in the crowd and stepped up to help develop our Circle of Excellence Young Giving Society. This highly successful group of next generation donors is having a tremendous impact on our future leadership. Jennifer has also become a valued member of the Foundation Board of Trustees and brings a fresh perspective to this important leadership role.

"With a special heart for the McLeod Children's Hospital, Jennifer has given of her time for the Chef & Child Dinner and Auction and the Children's Hospital Radiothon. It was only natural for her to become the first Chair of the newly established HERO Fund, benefiting children and families in need. Inspired by her daughter's experience with Pediatric Rehabilitation along with her family's generous history of support, she leads through both her words and actions. We are honored to name Jennifer our 2024 Volunteer of the Year."

McLeod Foundation Announces New Board Members

Gunter Bullock

Helen Holland

Sue Jona

Dr. Joshua Rouhan

The McLeod Health Foundation recently announced the addition of four new members to its Board of Trustees – Gunter Bullock, Helen Holland, Sue Jona and Dr. Joshua Rouhan.

Gunter Bullock is the Vice President/Owner of PDI Pharmacy in Florence. He is a graduate of the McLeod Health Fellows Class of 2023 and is a member of the McLeod Foundation's Circle of Excellence Young Giving Society which involves donors 45 years and younger who make a generous donation of $500 annually to support patient care projects at McLeod. Gunter resides in Florence with his wife Emily, a McLeod Health employee, and their two children.

Helen Holland is a graduate of the McLeod Health Fellows Class of 2014 and served as Chair of the McLeod Foundation's Community Partners Program Committee. She is married to Dr. Evans Holland who has cared for patients at McLeod Cardiology Associates for more than 20 years. In 2020, the Hollands established a Cardiac Rehabilitation Scholarship in memory of Helen's father, William Reeves Dunn, and in honor of Evans P. Holland, Sr. The couple are also members of the Dr. F. H. McLeod Legacy Society.

Sue Jona is a long-time supporter of the McLeod Health Foundation. She is married to Dr. Vinod Jona. Since arriving in Florence in 2001 for her husband to begin his pulmonary practice at McLeod, Sue has been involved in McLeod Angels, and the couple has made significant contributions to help build the Cancer Center and Emergency Department at McLeod Regional Medical Center. Most recently, they chose to endow a Pulmonary Rehabilitation Scholarship directly benefiting Dr. Jona's patients and establishing them as members of the Dr. F. H. McLeod Legacy Society. Sue also serves as Treasurer for the Florence County Medical Alliance and South Carolina Medical Alliance.

Dr. Joshua Rouhan joined the McLeod Health team as a physician in the Emergency Department at McLeod Regional Medical Center in 2021. He and his wife, Haley, are tireless advocates for the McLeod Foundation and support both the HERO (Helping Eliminate and Remove Obstacles) Fund for pediatric patients and the HOPE (Helping Oncology Patients Everyday) Fund. They are also members of the Circle of Excellence Young Giving Society. In 2024, Dr. Rouhan was recognized by the McLeod Foundation as the Physician Champion of the Year.

The McLeod Health Foundation is pleased to honor YOU, our donors who generously support the Foundation. Your gifts help make it possible for us to support McLeod Health in providing healthcare for the people of our region.
